Yours Faithfully,

Form for application for joint account To The Branch Manager .....(Bank) .....(Branch and Address) Sub: Payment of pension under PPO No...... through your bank branch. Dear Sir/Madam. I wish to receive my pension under PPO No.....by getting it credited to the saving/current bank account no...... which is operated jointly in your branch by me and my spouse, Mr./Mrs. in whose favour an eligibility for family pension exists in the Pension Payment Order (PPO). I have read and understood the contents of the OM No.GL/Admn/2003/4427 dt 14th August 2007 of the Damodar Valley Corporation (DVC) regarding operation of joint account, which contains the following terms and conditions. Once pension has been credited to a pensioner's bank account, the liability of the DVC /Bank ceases. No further liability arises, even if the amount is wrongly drawn by the spouse. As pension is payable only during the life of a pensioner, his/her death shall be intimated to the bank and DVC a) at the earliest and in any case within one month of the demise, so that DVC does not continue to send the monthly pension for crediting the same to the joint account with the spouse after the death of the pensioner. If, however, any amount has been wrongly credited to the joint account, it shall be recoverable from the joint account and/or any other account held by the pensioner/spouse either individually or jointly. The legal heirs, successors, executors etc. shall also be liable to refund any amount, which has been wrongly credited to the joint account. Payment of Arrears of Pensions(Nomination) Rules, 1983 would continue to be applicable to the joint account bì with pensioner's spouse. Thus, if there is an 'accepted nomination' in accordance with Rule 5 and 6 of these Rules. arrears mentioned in the Rules will be payable to the nominee. I accept the above terms and conditions. My spouse too, in token of having accepted those terms and conditions. has put his/her signature below. Signature of Pensioner Signature of Spouse Date--
